

CUSTOM ORDERS

Ca - ter (key-ter)

1. to provide food, service, etc.
2. to supply what is required or desired

A lot of companies stop reading after number 1, but we never forget about the second part. Our job is to “cater” to you, not just to deliver food. And that means we’ll do whatever it takes to make your event a success. When you call our catering line, you’ll be talking to Jay, our catering manager. He has worked with many of our customers in the past to help them create the exact custom package they are looking for. And he would love to do the same for you.

Maybe you’re looking for some large snack platters for a cocktail party. Or perhaps you’re having a more formal event and would like to hire some servers for your buffet. Whatever it is you’re looking for, we will make sure your banquet, party, wedding, luncheon, or any other event is the best. Please, don’t hesitate to call. It is our pleasure to serve you!
